

The Charles Manning Award Application Form

Terms and Conditions – Charles Manning Award

1. The Charles Manning Award is intended to provide small grants to healthcare professionals involved in the area of spinal deformity, as a contribution towards travel costs incurred when visiting institutions relevant to the area. Contributions towards the cost of attending conferences or meetings directly related to their field of expertise will also be considered.
The Award is primarily intended for applicants of a pre-Consultant level and allied health professionals, however in exceptional circumstances an Award may be made to an individual who is outside these criteria. SSR particularly welcomes applications from junior Doctors
2. The completed application form should be accompanied by a covering letter and CV. Evidence of costs should be included for travel outside Europe; this can be in the form of screen-prints representing the travel and accommodation costs, or a link to the website of a course or conference.
3. The maximum Award available is £300 for travel within the UK, £600 for travel within Europe, and £1000 for travel outside of Europe.
4. Successful applicants will be required to provide a written account of 500-750 words to SSR, of the experience and knowledge gained as a result of the Award.
5. The Award is given solely at the discretion of SSR.
